

Prince William County Virginia | Pi Lambda Lambda
| Third District – On March 20, 2021 the Omega U
Program was invited to an Investors Boot Camp II by Michael Thomas who is the owner of Columbia Life and Fitness Boot Camp. Michael also presents a financial class to students at Benedict College in Columbia, SC.

Michael got his start motivating and helping friends reach their goals as a child and has followed this path ever since. He began his journey into business when he was in the sixth grade and became an entrepreneur for the first time. Since then, he has amassed more than 35 years of business experience, coupled with his passion for public service.

He believes that stagnation causes misery, but growth is liberating. Michael is proud to support people in improving multiple aspects of their lives.

students on the ZOOM Meeting.

Omega U

Omega U has provided a financial literacy class to the students 11yrs old and up on how to save money and how to invest in the stock market, along with the steps to execute the formula in building wealth. Even at a young age the earlier you start investing the more you have when you are older.

“Anything that has to do with money, I want to be in that business.”

Omega U will continue to provide mentorship to the students in Prince William County, teaching them strive for more than the boundaries that are set around them.
