

Prince William County Virginia | Pi Lambda Lambda | Third District – On February 11, 2023, the Omega U hosted its 7th Annual Black History Program, with guest speakers Bro. Cozy Bailey and CEO Calvin Farr.

Rev. Cozy Bailey is President of the Prince William County Branch of the NAACP. He also serves as the Virginia State Conference Region 3 (Northern Virginia) Vice President as well as Vice Chair of the Virginia African American Advisory Board. He is an associate minister at First Mount Zion Baptist Church Dumfries, VA and a proud member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. since 1988. Bro. Bailey has been recognized by Black Engineer of the Year Awards (BEYA) where he was named one of the Top 100 Black Engineers in three consecutive years, 2005-2007. He is a director of the George M. Hampton Foundation, a not-for-profit foundation providing scholarships to young African American men and providing other community services.

The Brothers of Pi Lambda Lambda Chapter stand with the young men of the Omega U mentoring program for a group photo.

Omega U

"History has shown us that courage can be contagious and hope can take on a life of its own."

~ Michelle Obama~

Calvin D. Farr, Jr. is the General Manager/CEO for the Prince William County Service Authority (PWCSA), the largest combined water and wastewater utility in Virginia, serving more than 360,000 customers in a growing and diverse community of Prince William County, VA. PWCSA is a nationally recognized model for excellence, sustainability, industry best practices and environmental stewardship. Mr. Farr has 25 years of public and private sector utility industry experience, including water, wastewater, stormwater, and natural gas.

Papa Mintah-Adu 12th grader at Potomac Senior High School and Omega U president was today's MC

Bro. Cozy Bailey keynote speaker tells us what Black History means to him

Ledum Bonkoo 5th grader at Little River Elementary School speaks about what Black History means to him

CEO Calvin Farr, guest speaker shares his thoughts on Black History